Transactions of which the Company is unable to verify the actual existence

During the tax examination process that was conducted on NS Solutions Corporation (the “Company”) in mid-November of 2019, questions arose with respect to the actual existence of certain of the Company’s recorded purchase and resale of goods transactions. Due to this situation, the Company established a Special Investigation Committee and investigated this matter. As a result, transactions of which the actual existence cannot be verified have been ascertained. Therefore, the Company has cancelled such transactions, and has recorded the deposits and withdrawals related thereto as temporary receipts of 46,404 million yen and temporary payments of 44,753 million yen, respectively, and has also recorded the net amount of 1,650 million yen as other non-current liabilities.

In addition to the above, there were matters in relation to which orders were received and/or issued but not yet processed. In connection with such matters, Mizuho-Toshiba Leasing Company, Limited (“MTL”) has made a demand against the Company for payment of 10,926 million yen. The Company has also been informed of a lawsuit filed by MTL against the Company on March 31, 2020. The complaint has not yet been received, and the Company will review it when it is received.
